

Summary of ASOIF Statute Amendments

9 June 2022

CHAPTER II

Original Article	Proposed amendments (The subsequent Article numbers are amended accordingly)	Reason for change
3.1 The ASOIF is composed of the following Members:	3.1 The ASOIF is composed of the following Full and Associate Members:.	To clarify the ASOIF's membership status.
3.1 Full Members: International Federations governing sports on the sports programme of the Summer Olympic Games as listed in the Bye-laws to Rule 45 of the Olympic Charter (as amended accordingly).	Eligibility 3.2 Full Members: International Federations may apply to become a Full Member if they satisfy one of the following eligibility conditions: (a) govern a discipline, event or sport(s) included on the programme of the Summer Olympic Games as listed in the Bye-laws to Rule 45 of the Olympic Charter (as amended accordingly); or (b) govern a discipline, event or sport(s) which have been consecutively included on the programme for the 3 (three) most recent Summer Olympic Games.	To clarify the ASOIF's membership status and eligibility conditions given the changing sport programme of the Summer Olympic Games.
3.1 Associate Members: Other International Federations governing sports included within the events programme for a specific edition of the Summer Olympic Games.	3.3 Associate Members: Other International Federations governing sports included within the events programme for a specific edition of the Summer Olympic Games. International Federations may apply to become an Associate Member if they satisfy one of the following eligibility conditions: (a) govern a discipline, event or sport(s) included on the programme for future editions of the Summer Olympic Games; or (b) govern a discipline, event or sport(s) which have been included within the events programme for any 5 (five) editions of the Summer Olympic Games since 1988.	To clarify the ASOIF's membership status and eligibility conditions given the changing sport programme of the Summer Olympic Games.

Original Article	Proposed amendments (The subsequent Article numbers are amended accordingly)	Reason for change
3.2 Members shall have the following rights: (a) to attend the General Assembly; (b) bring forward any suggestions for the ASOIF Council (Council) to consider; and (c) to exercise any other rights arising from these Statutes. 3.3 Only Full Members shall have the following rights: (a) the right to receive a share of the revenues from the Summer Olympic Games in which their sport is included in the programme; (b) to vote and to make proposals to the General Assembly. Each Full Member shall have one vote; (c) propose items for inclusion in the agenda of the General Assembly including proposals to amend the Statutes; (d) have a vote and the right to speak on the distribution of the revenues of the Olympic Games and any other common revenues reverting to the Full Members; and (e) to propose one candidate for membership of the Council.	Rights 3.4 Full Members shall have the following rights: (a) to attend the General Assembly; 3.3(e)(b) to propose items for inclusion in the agenda of the General Assembly including proposals to amend the Statutes; 3.3(b)(c) to vote at the General Assembly. Each Full Member shall have one vote; 3.3(e)(d) to propose one candidate for membership of the Council; 3.2(b)(e) to propose suggestions for the ASOIF Council to consider; 3.3(a)(f) to receive a share of the revenues from the Summer Olympic Games in which their sport is included in the programme; 3.3(d)(g) to speak at the General Assembly on the distribution of the revenues of the Olympic Games and any other common revenues reverting to the Full Members. 3.3(d)(h) have a to vote at the General Assembly on the distribution of the revenues of the Olympic Games and any other common revenues reverting to the Full Members; and 3.2(e)(i) to exercise any other rights arising from these Statutes; 3.5 Associate Members shall have the following rights: (a) to attend the General Assembly; (b) to bring forward any suggestions for the ASOIF Council to consider; and (c) to exercise any other rights arising from these Statutes.	To better clarify the rights of ASOIF Full Members and Associate Members by reordering the related provisions. No substantive changes.
3.4 Members shall have the following obligations:	Obligations 3.6 Members shall have the following obligations:	Insertion of heading "Obligations" and renumbering.
3.5 Membership of the ASOIF may be granted by the General Assembly to an International Federation, which fulfils the conditions laid down in Article 3.1. Application for membership shall be made in writing to the ASOIF President (President).	3.7 Membership of the ASOIF may be granted by the General Assembly to an International Federation, which fulfils the eligibility conditions laid down in Article 3.4 3.2 or 3.3. Application for membership shall be made in writing to the ASOIF President (President).	Cross-references adjustment.

Original Article	Proposed amendments (The subsequent Article numbers are amended accordingly)	Reason for change
New	Lapse of membership 3.8 International Federations holding the status of Full Members, that cease to have at least one discipline, event or sport included on the programme of the next Summer Olympic Games convert from Full Members into the Associate Member category.	Membership of ASOIF should reflect the changing sport programme of the Olympic Games. Full Members convert to Associate Members should their sport not be included on the programme of the next Summer Olympic Games.
New	3.9 International Federations holding the status of Associate Members, that have not had at least one discipline, event or sport included on the programme of the previous two Summer Olympic Games lapse as Associate Members.	Membership of ASOIF should reflect the sport programme of the Olympic Games. Associate Members lapse as ASOIF Members if their sport is not included on the programme of the previous two Olympic Games.
3.9 The Council may provisionally suspend any Full Member's rights set forth in Article 3.3 if its IOC recognition is suspended, but allow it to retain its Member's rights set forth in Article 3.2. The Council may lift the suspension when such Full Member's IOC recognition is reinstated.	3.13 The Council may provisionally suspend any Full Member's rights set forth in Article 3.3 3.4 if its IOC recognition is suspended, but allow it to retain its Member's rights set forth in Article 3.2 3.5. The Council may lift the suspension when such Full Member's IOC recognition is reinstated.	Cross-references adjustment.